

DD 39 Skins, Bones And Empty Spaces - Atelier Thomas Pucher

Atelier Thomas Pucher was established in Graz in 2005. Pucher and his team have won numerous competitions around the world in recent years, confirming the firms status as a producer of internationally sought-after architecture. A selection of fourteen notable projects, both realised and not, is detailed in this highly informative edition, ranging from the Linz Dance Theatre and Salzburg Regional Hospital to the headquarters of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation, Jeddah, and the new seat of the Sinfonia Varsovia, Warsaw. Over 300 colour illustrations add depth to the practices concepts and ambitions, along with texts by Joost Meuwissen and Thomas Pucher.
