

Greater Than the Sum: Selections from the Craig Robins Collection of Contemporary Art

An enigmatic and complex art collector, Craig Robins approaches life with astounding creative freedom. Through his company, Dacra Development, Robins has created an admirable model for merging urban design, architecture, interior design and art in building new or revitalizing existing communities throughout greater Miami. Amy Vigilante, curator The Robins Collection comprises more than 300 artists from around the world, predominantly working in performance and installation. Many are known for the experimental nature of their creative processes. The collection includes works by Joseph Beuys, Marcel Duchamp, John Baldessari, Richard Tuttle, Paul McCarthy, Janine Antoni, Patty Chang, and Nicole Eisenman.
