

Kirk Pedersen: Urban Paintings and Photographs (English and Chinese Edition)

A unique document for a five city art exhibition in China of both urban landscape paintings and photographs. 12 x 10 inches, edition 1000 with only 400 available in the United States. The catalogue features 53 large format reproductions printed on heavy-weight Japanese matt paper. The Los Angeles art critic, Colette Chattopadhyay, states in her essay: Creating images by wandering the visually complex streets of cities, Pedersen today discovers a broad range of images that come to define specific places. Often selecting sights overlooked by most, that exist beyond a bend in the road, around the corner of a building, or on the face of a wall that has been left for demolition, Pedersen searches for and photographs the transience of life as manifest in structures often assumed to be permanent. The images that emerge from this intuitive, artistic process are variously inquisitive, dynamic or lyrical. They always capture ephemeral moments, sometimes filled with a quirky beauty or tranquility... Visually scanning, selecting, and photographing the realities of city life, Pedersen selects from infinite possibilities, interpreting the city in artistic terms.
