

Soaring to Great Heights (Natures Guide to Happiness)

Decide what is important and then focus on that. If you are thirsty, then take a drink. If you wish to clean your feathers, then jump in and splash and frolic to your hearts delight. If you wish to rest for a moment, then stand still. Pick one thing and do it. Dont try to do two or three things at once. If you try to dance about and look around at the same time, then you are likely to fall out of the bird bath. Do one thing at a time and do it well.
